115 學年度校外賽事徵選

Script

Have you ever wondered if one small choice could change everything?

Last Friday, I found an envelope on the floor outside the library. It was old and worn, with no stamp, no address, and no name. Just three words written across the front:

"Open Me."

I showed it to my friends. One said, "It's probably a joke. Just throw it away." But somehow, it felt important, so I decided to open it.

Inside was a single piece of paper.

There were only six words written in black ink:

"The answer depends on you."

I read the sentence again and thought.

What answer?

And why me?

Then I noticed something strange.

On the back of the paper, there was a map!

I followed the map.

When I arrived, I was shocked!

Because standing in front of me was something I never expected to find.

I saw...
